

Britt Michaelian, M.A. Bio

Britt Michaelian, M.A. is a passionate, serial entrepreneur dedicated to helping parents keep their families happy and healthy as they pursue their own personal ambitions. With a Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy and Art Therapy and as the Founder of Responsible Family, Britt Michaelian is well positioned to lead families into a new way of living in abundance. Responsible Family is a San Francisco based business that educates and empowers families about child safety and family balance through the internet, videos, books and live events.

In 2002, while working towards her Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy and Art Therapy, Britt started her first business, naturally called Britt Michaelian Fine Art, as an exhibiting artist. As her artwork gained recognition, so did her desire to help parents to prevent the accidents that brought children to the hospital where Britt worked. She joined forces with emergency room physician, Dr. Wayne Warrington and created her first product, the award winning video Care for Kids: The Essential Guide to Preparing Caregivers.

Since then, Britt has become a nationally recognized child safety expert and entrepreneur. With her Amazon bestseller Secrets of the Safety Goddess: A Modern Safety Guide for Busy Parents, Britt has appeared in local, national and international media, she has spoken at international conferences and lead family based workshops designed to keep families safe, happy and healthy.

In early 2009, Britt joined forces with Wealthy Girl Summit creator Alicia Dunams to form See You On The Call, a teleseminar listing service that helps entrepreneurs to promote their businesses. In addition, Britt added a new product category to Responsible Family Company, a brand called Work Smart Mompreneurs. With the slogan “work smart, live smarter”, this division of Responsible Family Company is the embodiment of Britt's personal values of trust, love, relationship and creativity. Work Smart Mompreneurs was launched with a powerful 5-Part teleseries called Business Building Basics for Stay at Home Moms,

In the first call of the series “How to Find Your True Passion”, Britt explored how moms can tap into their passion after having children and reconnect with their purpose in life. On the second call, she explored the top 5 ideal business models for stay at home moms. The third teleseminar combined that passion from the first teleseminar and a business model from the second call to create a passion-based lifestyle business plan that incorporates a mother's family, career and personal goals. The fourth teleseminar was about building a dream support team using specific ways to attract people with like values who will help moms achieve their ultimate vision because it is in alignment with their purpose. The final teleseminar summed up all of the parts of the teleseries and gave moms a cohesive plan to fund their passion-based lifestyle businesses without touching their personal bank accounts.

Britt Michaelian, M.A. is a warm and friendly speaker who engages her audience by presenting thoughtful material while asking questions and encouraging audience participation.
